

Privacy Policy

At TONBANKCARD, accessible via <https://tonbankcard.com>, we operate as a decentralized autonomous organization (DAO). We are not a legal entity, but rather a community of enthusiasts and supporters of the TON blockchain, committed to advancing technology based on this blockchain. This Privacy Policy outlines the types of information that may be automatically collected when you visit our website and how it is used. We also emphasize that no personal data is collected or processed in accordance with international data protection laws.

If you have any questions regarding this Privacy Policy, please feel free to contact us.

Consent

By using our website, you agree to the terms outlined in this Privacy Policy.

Data Collection

Our website does not collect, store, or process personal data. We use minimal technical cookies and local storage solely for functional purposes, such as saving user preferences, without collecting any personal information.

Use of Information

Any information that is automatically collected (such as browser type, settings, and preferences) is used solely for the following purposes:

- Ensuring and improving the functionality of the website
- Optimizing user experience
- Maintaining the operational integrity of the website

We do not use this information for identification purposes or targeted advertising. Furthermore, we do not share this data with third parties, nor do we commercially exploit any user information.

Log Files

TONBANKCARD uses standard log files for internal analytics and website maintenance. This information includes IP addresses, browser types, timestamps, and the pages viewed during the visit. However, this data is not linked to any personally identifiable information and is only used to improve the performance and experience of the website.

Cookies and Local Storage

We use cookies and local storage strictly to save user preferences, such as theme selection or currency options. This data does not include personal information and is not shared with third parties.

Third-Party Services

TONBANKCARD does not engage with third parties for user data collection purposes. If you interact with advertising partners or third-party services, they may use cookies or other technologies to display ads. We do not control or have access to these technologies or the data collected by third parties. We recommend reviewing their privacy policies for more detailed information.

User Rights

Our website is designed to comply with international standards such as the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA). However, since we do not collect or process personal data, rights related to access, correction, deletion, or restriction of data processing are not applicable.

Children's Information

TONBANKCARD does not knowingly collect information from children under the age of 13. If you believe that a child has provided personal information through our website, please contact us immediately, and we will promptly remove such information.

Policy Updates

We reserve the right to update this Privacy Policy at any time. Any changes will be posted on this page and will take effect immediately upon posting.

If you have any questions regarding this Privacy Policy, please contact us through our website.
